2. There has never been any question concerning [REDACTED] ability to work with others. He is quiet and cooperative. He has accepted assignments willingly and has done his very best to meet the requirements. He is a loyal employee of the Agency and he has been continuously alert to his security obligations.

3. It is the writer's opinion that [REDACTED] has not had the proper background to do the type of research required in ORR. As the summary of suggested types of employment indicates, Mr. [REDACTED] strength is in the engineering field in a variety of operational positions. He has not had experience with research and writing, does not have a feel for it, has not been happy in it and has not done well at it.
